Juniors

The Junior year holds many experiences, pleasant and not so pleasant.
There are the future plans that face
us, the achievement tests,
And the college boards.

The glory of Senior High has worn thin
And we are known as . . .
below the Seniors.

In the midst of all these difficulties
our spirits can be lifted.
the class rings, the Cinderella Ball,
And the thought of being a Senior soon.

Sophomores

The step into Senior High has at last been taken. Junior High days are gone forever. Of course through the glory difficulty sneaks in — the bewildered first days and being the low man on the totem pole. But we can look forward to the day soon when we will be the upperclassmen.

Ninth Grade

Class of "72"
A salute to you.
You're great, you're fine,
Like the Class of "69".

There are the teachers of misery as they are.
But they are alright by far.

Here it is, I'll give it straight,
All the kids who'll celebrate,
In "72" that great date.

Eighth Grade

The remembering of the past and the apprehension of the future . . .
The desperate challenge against most upper classmen . . . Another year when you don't succeed at first, try, try again . . .
A step between the pressures of seventh and the so called pleasures at ninth?

1969 Echo And Mike Staffs

The 1969 Area Echo is among the finest books ever published from C.A.H.S. Under the direction of Mr. William Nesmith, yearbook sponsor, and Mr. Sylvan Pinto, American Yearbook representative, we have made many new and interesting changes. A Fall yearbook and a cover designed by Pete Maruska and Gary Grooms are just two of the various differences in our book this year.

I hope you enjoy looking through and reading the entire book and that you will spend many pleasant hours recalling the activities of the past school year.

The staff and I would like to wish you all the luck in the near and distant future and hope your 1969 yearbook will help you to keep in mind the many wonderful hours spent here at Carmichaels Area.

Sincerely yours,
Barbara J. Pavel

Carol Kovach, editor of the school newspaper, the Mike, has collected news items from all school happenings. Although the newspaper did not make its regular appearances as in past years, the publications that did arrive were most interesting and informative.
